

INTERNET NOTICE/POLICY

Welcome to the Southern District of Georgia's website. Please be aware that you are entering an Official United States Government system, which may be used only for authorized purposes. Unauthorized modification of any information stored on this system may result in criminal prosecution. The Government may monitor, audit usage and disclose information obtained to other agencies or government officials. All persons are hereby notified that use of this system constitutes consent to such monitoring and auditing.

This website may contain numerous hypertext links to information created and maintained by other public and private organizations. These links are provided solely for the user's convenience. Our Court does not control nor guarantee the accuracy, relevance or completeness of this outside information. The inclusion of any links to external organizations is not intended to endorse any views expressed or products or services offered, nor should these links be construed as a determination of the relative importance or value of a particular external site.

Please also be advised that the District and Bankruptcy Court in the Southern District of Georgia images all non-sealed documents filed with the Court. Until further action by the Judicial Conference, these documents are available for viewing by anyone who accesses our Public Access to Court Electronic Records ("PACER") system via the internet. Accordingly, personal identifying information (such as social security numbers, financial account numbers, dates of birth, names of minor children, and home addresses of victims of crime) should be redacted from any document or exhibit filed with the Court unless such information is necessary and relevant to the case. All parties wishing to seal court documents should follow the procedures set forth in our Local Rules.

We hope that our web site is helpful to you in working with the U.S. Courts in the Southern District of Georgia.
